THE ART COLLECTION

Ovation of the SeasSM

“Wherever you go,
go with all your heart.”

天涯海角，身心相隨。

—Confucius

The true essence of the cruise experience is to broaden our horizons by introducing us to new and unexpected adventures. On her maiden voyage, Ovation of the Seas will continue in that pursuit, traversing the world on a Global Odyssey offering itineraries to exotic ports of call in the Far East and beyond.

To match the unparalleled destinations she will visit, the team at Royal Caribbean International paired with London-based Peter Millard and Partners to curate an art collection of contemporary pieces by new, emerging, and mid-career artists. The vast collection was assembled using the inspirational words by Confucius as a guide, “Wherever you go, go with all your heart.”

In that spirit, Dream World 2016 by Chinese artist Ye Hongxing tackles the question of authorship and medium. Her figurative canvases use individual stickers to form intricate, whimsical collages. A combination of mass production and handcraft, her work points to the frailty of art in a modern context.

Sky Wave by Bill Washabaugh and Jeff Lieberman is placed along Ovation of the Seas' central staircase to highlight its staggering size. The kinetic sculpture pivots and curves at different points to create various forms that are reminiscent of both wind and water. A marvel of maritime engineering, as well as artistic production, the piece was especially made to take into account the ship's roll and yaw.

Australian artist Joseph Marr recreated his fully preserved sugar sculpture, Laura, in cast resin for the ship. His work incorporates elements of photography, painting, conceptual, and video art. Aboriginal artist Jeannie Petyarre draws on the natural flora of her native region as source material for her vibrant canvases. In Bush Yam Leaves she's inspired by the bush yam, a vital source of food for the Anmatyerre tribe in central Australia.

While you sail aboard this world class ship make sure to take note of the artfully hung pieces that adorn the halls, corridors, stairways, restaurants, and staterooms. Above all, make sure to revel in the spontaneous energy alive on the ship and at each destination, and truly “go with all your heart.”
