ROYAL CARIBBEAN NAMES ALISTAIR DELANCEY AS DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS FOR ROYAL BEACH CLUB PARADISE ISLAND

The Bahamian hospitality expert will oversee operations of the first in the Royal Beach Club Collection

NASSAU, THE BAHAMAS, April 23, 2025 – Royal Caribbean International has appointed Alistair Delancey as director of operations of the Royal Beach Club Paradise Island, coming to The Bahamas in December 2025. Delancey joins the growing management team of the vacation brand’s first beach club experience and brings decades of expertise in driving high-impact operational performance.

“I am thrilled to welcome Alistair to the Royal Beach Club Paradise Island team. Alistair's extensive experience in hospitality and operations, combined with his deep understanding of Bahamian culture, makes him an invaluable addition to our management team,” said Philip Simon, President, Royal Caribbean, Bahamas. “His leadership and expertise will undoubtedly enhance the guest experience and contribute to the success of our first beach club experience.”

Delancey will oversee the overall operations of Royal Beach Club Paradise Island and the world-class experiences the beach club will deliver to millions of vacationers. As part of his role, he will promote operational excellence and safety, as well as lead a workforce of more than 500 staff members.

The Bahamian hospitality expert brings decades of expertise in developing and implementing business strategies focused on enhanced operation, efficiency and performance. He previously served as General Manager for The Baha Bay Beach Club and waterpark at SLS Baha Mar.

Royal Beach Club Paradise Island, General Manger, Troy Smith, shared, “Alistair is adept at leading cross-functional teams, optimizing operational efficiency, and fostering partnerships, making him the ideal candidate for this first-of-its-kind project.”
