NAVIGATOR OF THE SEAS SET FOR A STANDOUT SINGAPORE DEBUT IN 2026-27

Next-level ultimate family holidays are on the horizon on 3- to 12-night adventures

SINGAPORE, May 13, 2025 – A new wave of adventure is making its way to Asia. For the first time ever, Royal Caribbean’s Navigator of the Seas will call Singapore home with the ultimate combination of short getaways and longer holidays in store. Between October 2026 and February 2027, holidaymakers of all ages are in for a lineup of 3- to 12-night adventures, visiting Southeast and East Asia’s most-loved destinations and awe-inspiring landscapes. Bookings for the new season’s holidays are now available on Royal Caribbean’s website.

“With Navigator of the Seas, we are bringing an adventure-packed holiday experience tailored to Asian travelers, especially families and large groups. From thrilling activities to world-class entertainment and dining, there’s something for everyone from every generation to enjoy together,” said Chad Grospe, vice president and managing director, APAC, Royal Caribbean International. “We’re committed to delivering unforgettable vacations with industry-first innovations, ensuring our guests all around the world can create lasting memories.”

Starting October 2026, travelers can pack their bags for unforgettable journeys across the region, with a combination of short trips ranging from three to five nights. Explore the heritage-rich town of Penang, Malaysia while indulging in delectable local street flavours, unwind on the idyllic beaches of Phuket, Thailand, and enjoy a stopover at the scenic island of Langkawi, Malaysia. For those seeking a longer escape, a one-of-a-kind 10-night journey will take holidaymakers to the jewels of Thailand and Vietnam, including the history-rich Ho Chi Minh City, the vibrant beach town of Da Nang, and an overnight stay in the buzzing metropolis of Bangkok.

In February 2027, the adventure reaches new heights as Navigator will embark on 11- and 12-night holidays from Singapore and Tokyo. These sailings will visit remarkable destinations across East Asia including Tokyo; Japan, Hong Kong, and Taipei, Taiwan—perfect for families looking to combine cultural exploration with Royal Caribbean’s signature thrills.
