

ROYAL CARIBBEAN ANNOUNCES SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENT TO IMPROVE ROAD INFRASTRUCTURE IN NUEVO MAHAHUAL

MAHAHUAL, MEXICO – February 20, 2026 – Royal Caribbean today announced a significant investment to support the rehabilitation of key roads in Nuevo Mahahual, reaffirming the company’s long-term commitment to partnership and collaboration with the local community.

The announcement was made during a community meeting where Royal Caribbean representatives joined residents and local authorities to discuss needs, priorities and next steps related to local infrastructure. The meeting reflected a shared commitment to dialogue, transparency and collective action.

The road rehabilitation work will begin in the coming days and is expected to conclude in approximately one month. The project will be executed by qualified companies that hold all required permits, working in close coordination with community leaders to ensure minimal disruption and clear communication throughout the process.

“Royal Caribbean is proud to support the well-being and development of Nuevo Mahahual,” said Ari Adler, President, Royal Caribbean Mexico. “We consider ourselves a neighbor in this community, independent of any tourism project. Our commitment remains rooted in listening, engaging and building long-term solutions together.”

During the meeting the company also committed to work hand-in-hand with the community to support the municipalization process and ensure their concerns are elevated to the appropriate government entities.

The project aims to improve accessibility, safety and overall quality of life for residents of Nuevo Mahahual, while reinforcing the company’s broader commitment to sustainable and community-centered development.
